ter and to prove this fact the high school band Thursday evening made a big hit at an open-air concert presented in front of Hotel Covelo, surrounded by crowds of courteous and appreciative listeners. The musicians were assembled promptly with the exception of one member who plays an important part did not arrive until near the end of the program.

Much Is Do'ng.

There are a few dull moments in Covelo, but the fall social calendar has been filled to the brim. It was a bridal shower Friday afternoon for Mrs. Robert Henderson, given at the country place of Mrs. Clyde Hopper. Nearly a hundred packaged gifts; a lovely assortment of useful and pretty things was given the happy bride . The entertainment program consisted of everyone singing "God Bless America," two accordion solos by Mrs. George Wood, and Mrs. Frank Haydon presented a clever special ditty arranged for the bride and groom. Guests were invited to enjoy the luncheon menu of hot dogs bedded in buttered homemade hot rolls, salad, cake and coffee. Mrs. Clarence O'Ferrall baked the bride's cake, which turned out to be too pretty to cut. The affair was of such an enjoyable nature, many returned with their escorts for an old-time charavari in the evening.

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR THE R. E. MEETING

Redwood Empire Association Assembles Here This Week

TO ENTERTAIN PUBLIC

Parade, Feasting And Dancing In Honor Of Our Guests

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the citizens and all interests within this City of Ukiah are directly interested in the further development of the tourist and vacationist industry, which produces new cash income from outside points, beneficial and profitable to every channel of trade in this community; and

Whereas, our own non-profit, nine-counties Redwood Empire Association (organized 20 years ago) is increasing tourist and vacationist traffic—by developing highway and transportation facilities, also by conducting effective inter-city and inter-county publicity and advertising schedules for this and other Redwood Empire cities and counties; now, therefore,

Be it resolved, that I, A. L. Harris, Mayor of Ukiah, on this 22nd day of October, 1940, do hereby proclaim this week "Redwood Empire Week," by virtue of the fact the Redwood Empire Association will hold its Twentieth Annual Convention in Ukiah, for the purpose of formulating next year's production schedule, designed to further develop our highways and tourist industry; and

I further urge all citizens and organizations to attend this Convention and participate in the important business sessions and conferences here on October 25 and 26, when all official committees and units will meet and act upon projects scheduled for 1941.

Signed A. L. HARRIS,
Mayor.

Business sessions will be richly interspersed with entertainment, gaiety and color October 25 and 26, when members of the Redwood Empire Association from nine counties will hold a two-day convention in Ukiah. Committees have been hard at work arranging sight-seeing tours, banquets, teas and every feature to make the visitors welcome a royal one, and impress on them the warmth of our city's hospitality.

A Gorgeous Parade.

One special feature is to be the Highway Jubilee Procession Saturday night, preceding the governor's banquet. The parade will portray the transportation history of Ukiah and Mendocino county, and there will be many spectacular participants, among them the Oregon Cavemen, Paul Bunyanettes, an Indian troupe, gay troubadors and varied members on foot, all carrying old-fashioned pitch-lighted torches.

There'll Be Dancing.

Saturday night, after the banquet, members of the Grange will act as hosts at a complimentary dance in Grange Hall.

Feasting And A Program.

Friday there is a banquet, scheduled at the Saturday Afternoon Club, and to precede it a program at the ball park south of town, where the splendid Ukiah Quadrille will perform.

Have Capable Leadership.

Walter Sandelin is general chairman and George P. Anderson vice-chairman, and working with them are a vast number, aiding in every way to make the convention highly successful. Fred E. Dickey and W. K. Davis are co-chairmen of the general reception committee and Mayor A. L. Harris, with members of the city council will be active in arranging welcomes for special guests of the convention. Richard Andrews, of the American Legion, and Guss Wallach and John Mason, Veterans of Foreign Wars, head members of those respective organizations in arranging transportation and sightseeing. Mrs. Katherine Foster heads a committee planning teas, card parties, special tours and entertainment of various types for the women members of visiting parties. Decorations and flowers, which will beautify hotel lobbies, guest rooms and banquet tables, are in charge of Eunice Faas. Ronald Bowers is organizing music and entertainment features. George David is directing electrical effects and spotlights in connection with convention events and will take charge of the part the Scouts will have in the affair. Lon Gibson is handling publicity and Paul Poulos and Fred Dickey are co-chairman on the finance committee. Roy Jones is taking charge of housing and meeting room arrangements. Mrs. Ardis Roberts is registration chairman and others in that field are E. N. Frost, Senator G. M. Biggar, W. F. Whitney, C. R. Yarbrough, L. B. Williams, Don MacMillan, Vernon Rawles, C. A. Weller, [illegible] Elliott and [illegible] Taylor.

FISHING GOOD

Local fishermen have been enjoying some good grilse fishing the past week and nice catches have been made. Salmon are slow in coming into the rivers but with a good rain there is likely to be a large run of salmon.

Round Valley Residents Step Forward At The Call

MANY ARE MARRIED

Fine Type Of Citizenship Is Reflected In Response

Special Correspondence of The Press

COVELO, Oct. 22. — Selective Service registration was conducted here as elsewhere in three Round Valley precincts. Registrars assumed duties from seven a.m. to nine p.m., cheerfully without compensation and the 111 registrants in this vicinity, seemingly did their duty in the same manner.

Fine Type Of Men.

Most of the young men within the age brackets are married and a good part have families. Round Valley precinct 1 was high with 38 registrants. Edward Spence was first to be signed. The board included Mesdames Clifford S. Foster, Lester Fitzhugh, E. V. A. Murphey, L. J. Lane, and Grover C. Hurt held his own with the feminines.

Round Valley No. 2 board included J. G. Short, D. P. English, Truman Lowry, Mesdames Kenneth Lovell, Grace Foster, Ralph McCombs.

Had Nice Quarters.

Reservation precinct board, which is the largest in the county, included Mesdames Chas. Rice, Jas. Walters, Ray Bauer, P. Clark and Rev. Charles Olson. This board which served on election dates is really envied—quartered in the spacious Indian grade school auditorium, with kitchen, refrigeration and all comforts of home at its disposal, and what a feast and gay day of informality the members share.

Teachers Scattered.

Some of the local faculty departed for different destinations early Friday, prior to opening of Institute held at Ukiah. Charles Delgado, principal of the Indian grade school, was one, driving over the Black Butte highway to Chico During Institute, at the request of School Superintendent John W. Taylor, Mrs. E. V. A. Murphey had on exhibit mounted plant specimens which she had prepared, similar to those recently made by her for Carson and Western Shoshone Indian agencies in connection with range surveys. The plant mounts shown were patterned after those made by Oregon State University at Corvallis and are simple to make, inexpensive, light in weight and indestructible. For those interested, Mrs. Murphey explained the work and mimeographed instructions were available to teachers. By courtesy of Principal Vance D. Lewis explanatory signs for the exhibit were made by Round Valley high school students.

A Coming Wedding.

Latest romance of interest comes with the wedding announcement and date already set for Miss Helen Doris Dwyer and Beverly Whitney Rohrbough, who will exchange marriage vows Saturday evening, November 2, at St. Peter's Episcopal church, San Francisco. Miss Dwyer is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Valentine Dwyer, of San Francisco, and has made her acquaintance here at the Rohrbough residence. Beverly is a member of the prominent J. S. Rohrbough family and like his fiance is a graduate of the University of California. He has for many years been a staff member of the Crocker National Bank in San Francisco.

Band Was Out.

AIRPORT GOT A DISTINCTIVE BOOSTING NOD

Government Put Willits On Approved Landing List

IS RATED WITH BEST

California Given 32 Federally Selected Fields

Special Correspondence of The Press

WILLITS, Oct. 22.—Willits is one of the 32 airports in California to be selected as a defense landing spot, according to a message received here last week. To make it still stronger it should be remembered there are only 250 such airports in the nation. Our field has been listed as being in Class Two and Class One fields are only in the large cities or near them. Our strategic location probably has something to do with the choice but added to this we probably have the largest airport in this part of the state and the possibilites of enlargement are almost unlimited for the adjacent land belongs to a San Francisco Bank that took over the holdings of the defunct Northwestern Redwood Company and the management of this Bank has promised to assist in every way possible. The government has appropriated forty million dollars to develop these fields and the Willits allotment will be used for permanent improvements such as surfaced runways, etc. We also have the only aviation club in the county and a large number of young men are learning to fly under direction of licensed aviators.

What's This?

Ukiah take notice: Last week Robert Odell, who owns a large ranch a short distance north of Ukiah wanted something in a hurry and he had his pilot, Ted Messer, bring it up from San Francisco. Of course he had to land at the Willits airport and the articles were then rushed by automobile to Ukiah.

In The Draft.

There were 281 young men registered in the selective service draft last week, 18 of whom were from Camp Northwestern CCC camp.

Told To Quit.

Chief Jake Thom has notified all resorts to stop stud poker games and throw out one-arm bandits — slot machines and punch boards. Attorney General Earl Warren sent this instruction down the line.

To Get Religion.

A community church has been organized at Laytonville and for the time being will be attended to by Rev. C. L. Buckner, Methodist pastor at Willits. The meetings are held at the schoolhouse.

Want A Park.

The Laytonville Chamber of Commerce held an interesting meeting last week at which W. F. Whitney of Willits made the principal talk. His subject was a County Park in Jackson Valley. A resolution was passed asking the supervisors to assist in obtaining county and state aid. The Chamber also donated $15 towards the purchase of a fire truck for Laytonville.

Negro Was Injured.

Pinkey Franks, 59, negro, employed at the Farley WPA camp, slipped and broke his ankle and was brought to Howard Memorial Hospital.

Has City Job.

Miss Edna Gunderson, former resident and graduate of our high school, now holds a nice position with Bank of America in San Francisco but makes her home in Sausalito. She came up last week for a short visit.

Added To Fund.

The benefit show given at The Willits Theatre for the Municipal Band and Drum Corps netted $42.52.

Mrs. Charles Whited has returned from an extended visit with her son, Dr. C. V. Whited, at Mendocino, and expects to pass the winter here.

Mrs. Mecca McPeak was local delegate to the Pythian Sisters district convention at Healdsburg Friday night.

Mrs. Cora Sacry, who has been confined to her home several weeks by illness, is reported much improved.

Police Aid.

A red or police light has been installed beneath the large neon sign in front of The Travelers Hotel. Any person wishing to summon a policeman at night

ASKING AID FOR WAR'S VICTIMS

Red Cross Seeks To Alleviate Winter's Harshness

Mrs. Julia T. Shinn, Mrs. Lee Williams and Mrs. Charles Kasch motored to San Rafael Monday to attend a regional conference of the Pacific Division of the American Red Cross. The chief speaker of the day was James T. Nicholson, assistant to the National Chairman of American Red Cross Norman Davis. Mr. Nicholson recently returned from an eight months stay in Europe and brought first hand and authentic information concerning the activities of the Red Cross in the present foreign situation.

Shelters Need Much Equipment.

Ten thousand tons of American Red Cross materials reached England during the month of July and was distributed by the Red Cross units throughout the Island. Every English ship leaving the United States since that date has carried Red Cross supplies. Shipping space being so extremely valuable the Red Cross officials have taken every precaution to see that it has been used to the utmost advantage. England's great need at the moment is for rolling kitchens, not ambulances, for surgical instruments rather than doctors, for clothing and warm woolen blankets for the shelters. All these the Red Cross is supplying steadily and so far without any loss.

Help For The Homeless.

The second request for garments for the refugees, for those of the English population who have lost their homes through bombings and for those who have fled to England from other war-ravaged countries, has reached the Mendocino Chapter. This quota is somewhat larger than the summer quota due to the fact England's burden has become heartbreakingly greater. The Red Cross has been asked to make up the garments at the request of the Government and the materials will be furnished by the Treasury Department through funds appropriated by Congress. The distribution of materials to 3700 chapters throughout the county will take a certain amount of time but it is expected supplies will reach Ukiah in two or three weeks.

Workers Are Named.

Mrs. Charles Kasch, Chairman of War Production in Mendocino Chapter has appointed the following branch chairmen: Mrs. Julia T. Shinn, Ukiah; Mrs. Lee Williams, Potter Valley; Mrs. C. R. Yarbrough, Redwood Valley; Mrs. Guy Graves, Hopland; Mrs. Edith Walters, Covelo; Mrs. J. T. Farrer, Boonville. Mrs. C. M. Fulkerson, Mrs. Guss Wallach and Mrs. R. R. Ingels will serve on the committee with Mrs. Shinn. The Veterans Memorial Hall will be headquarters for Ukiah branch where two afternoons a week volunteer women will sew and knit the needed garments. A score of women have already offered their services and will be called upon as soon as materials arrive. Mendocino Chapter extends over the eastern half of this county.

PRISON CASE NOW NEARING COURT RULING

Olson Ouster Legality Argued Yesterday At The Capital

MUCH IS AT STAKE

Governor Seeks Control Of Advisory Pardon Board

In the Appellate Court at Sacramento yesterday the case of the State Prison Board against Governor C. L. Olson was argued by John L. McNab, attorney for the State Prison Board. Mr. McNab made an extended and very effective presentation and a decision will come out in due time.

Confirmation Is Out.

There is practically no chance of Governor Olson having his illegally named prison directors confirmed by the State Senate. Twice he has tried to get favorable consideration for his appointees, only to fail.

What Is Feared.

The reason the State Senate is opposed to confirmation is because of the fact, if Governor Olson has a packed prison board, it will remain in office 10 years—the terms of the directors are staggered and run for that length of time and, accordingly, California will be compelled to submit to Olson prison misrule long after Olson is out of office.

Can Turn Criminals Loose!

Not only is there danger of saddling the present illegal board on the State for 10 years but, if the illegal board is confirmed, Governor Olson will control the Advisory Pardon Board and the seriousness of that situation is reflected by what is occurring now. Governor Olson has been trying to get the Advisory Pardon Board to pardon Ramsay and King, the ship killers, but the Advisory Pardon Board has refused. As the Board now stands the two wardens of the State prisons, the Attorney General, the Lieutenant Governor and the head of the Bureau of Identification compose the Advisory Board. Lieut. Governor Patterson is for pardoning the murderers, but the two wardens, the attorney general and the chief of the Bureau of Identification are opposed. It will only require control of the State Prison Board to give Governor Olson control of the Advisory Pardon Board. The set-up making this possiible is: The State Prison Board appoints the two wardens and the wardens automatically become members of the Advisory Pardon Board. Naturally Olson will see, if he gets control of the State Prison Board, Wardens he can handle are named, so they may be "right," on the Advisory Pardon Board.

What He Is After.

The issue being fought out in its final stages this week will determine whether law enforcement in California will be impaired by Governor Olson securing control of the State Detective Bureau, the prisons at San Quentin, Folsom and Chino and the State Parole office. There are altogether, some 700 employes under control of the State Prison Board and this political patronage has long been eyed by Governor Olson.

Talmage Head Is Program Speaker

Thursday last at Sonoma State Home probation officers and social workers of several counties gathered in a regional meeting. Dr. Aaron Rosanoff, director of the State Department of Institutions, and other dignitaries participated. Dr. Walter A. Rappaport, superintendent of Mendocino State Hospital was on the program and made an interesting address. Dr. Rappaport is especially well grounded in his work and is able to very intelligently and interestingly express himself to an audience.

VISITS IN SONOMA

Mrs. A. S. Reynolds, accompanied by her son, Roy Ford, went to Guernewood Wednesday for an overnight visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Schafer, old friends, who have called several times recently at the Reynolds home here. The local people returned Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tolman returned Saturday from a three-weeks visit with relatives in southern California.

YOU CAN DO IT

No matter how you are registered you may cast a ballot for Wendell Willkie at the November election. This was made clear last week following numerous inquiries as to whether registered Democrats could vote for Willkie. Under the law, at a general election a ballot may be cast for any candidate regardless of the voter's party affiliation. The party vote applies only at a primary election.

WOOLGROWERS MEETING SET FOR SATURDAY

Sheepmen From Mendocino To Gather In Ukiah

LEADING U. S. IN WOOL

Coyote Control Has Set Example For Southwest

Saturday next woolgrowers from all over the county will be on hand to hold a meeting at the city hall at 10 o'clock. Wool growing is a big industry in Mendocino county and it should be supported in every way possible.

Where We Stand.

Frank C. Clark, one of the foremost woolgrowers of the United States will be here and probably make an address. Not long ago Mr. Clark said to The Republican Press: "Few people have any idea of the extent of the sheep business in Mendocino county. It is very much underestimated. We are so favored here we sometimes lose sight of our industries—This county is noted for the excellence of its wool, fruits, lumber, hops and wines, but at the very top stands wool. Mendocino county is famous, nationally, for its fine wool and in the matter of coyote control Mendocino is leading the way for all states and counties of the west and its policy along the coyote control line is sane and satisfactory."

Many Are Coming.

The gathering Saturday promises to be an important one and will be well attended.

BENEFIT FILM WAS SELECTED

Catholic Ladies Get Tom Brown's Tale Of Rugby Days

Selection of a motion picture for the benefit of St. Mary's church has been made by the Catholic Ladies League, who chose a film which is certain to appeal to people of all ages. "Tom Brown's School Days," classic story which has thrilled millions of readers for nearly a century, is to be shown at matinee and evening performances Friday, November 8, at The State Theatre.

It Is A Classic.

The greatest story ever written about student life at England's Rugby School, founded and endowed in 1567, will be portrayed by excellent actors, bringing to the screen vivid episodes of school-day hazing, fighting, fun and excitement.

Tells Life's Story.

Behind it all is the current that carries boys to manhood and men to nobility or disgrace. The adventures and exploits of the boys at Rugby and their final awakening to the meaning of the firm but benevolent rule of Dr. Arnold, beloved figure of English school history, wonderfully portrayed by Sir Cedric Hardwicke, make for an exceptionally stirring film.

Is Finely Filmed.

Humor, excitement, adventure and deeply dramatic sequences, combined with a cast which includes such notables as Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Freddie Bartholomew, Jimmy Lydon, Josephine Hutchinson and Billy Halop, make "Tom Brown's School Days" a film to be enjoyed and remembered.

Woolgrowers Will Meet Here Saturday

The annual meeting of the Mendocino-Lake Wool Growers Association will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Ukiah city hall.

JOHNSTON CUT ROADWORKERS OFF OF RELIEF

WPA Refused To Allow Supervisor To Change Plans

HE CANNOT DICTATE

Fear Is Road Relief May Be Curtailed In The County

Will the Mendocino coast section lose its WPA road grants because of the alleged dictatorial attitude Supervisor Johnston has assumed?

It appears very likely it will.

Cannot Afford Loss.

The coast country cannot afford to have a calamity of this nature fall on it at this time because of the employment it provides, neither can Mendocino county afford to have its road program destroyed because Supervisor Johnston happens to, in a moment of frenzy, declare he "will not be dictated to" and drive off the WPA forces.

Offended Once Before.

This is the second time Supervisor Johnston has tried to interfere with the orderly program of road work, which the county had agreed to, and force his way on own WPA programs. Some months ago Supervisor Johnston tried to "purge" Senator G. M. Biggar, who opposed Governor Olson in the legislature, by attempting to bring about a breaking up of Camp Farley WPA project, but failed dismally. Now he is endangering all coast work by shutting down a WPA coast project.

It Happened Thus.

As The Republican Press is advised a road project was laid out by County Surveyor Ed. Smith and work was progressing satisfactorily when, one day, the stakes turned up missing. Inquiry by Project Road Superintendent Roach as to what had become of the survey stakes developed a reply from Supervisor Johnston's road boss Matt Thompson he "had shoved them into the ravine with his bulldozer." Appeal by Foreman Roach to Supervisor Johnston elicited the reply he "was not going to allow any WPA to question his authority over roads" and that he would "build the road the way he (Johnston) wanted."

Asked To Be Reasonable.

It was suggested to Supervisor Johnston the survey had been made by the county surveyor and accepted by the WPA and that work could not proceed by any word-of-mouth directed plans, but Supervisor Johnston was unwilling to be "dictated" to and insisted the road must be built the way he wanted it.

His Way Only.

County Surveyor Ed. Smith was appealed to, as was the WPA officer in charge of projects here, but Supervisor Johnston would not consent to anything but having his own way. Superintendent Roach then suggested, if Supervisor Johnston would go along with the county surveyor and lay out his own route, the WPA workmen would follow the lines. To this Supervisor Johnston refused to agree, stating he "might want to change the lines, even after he had seen them laid out."

Work Ordered Stopped.

Unable to consent to a road-making policy which did not know the direction the road was taking, the WPA authorities appealed to Santa Rosa headquarters and were directed to close down the project and the crew was laid off. The coast men accordingly became idle and, if the controversy is not settled at once, there may be difficulty in having relief work continued and the coast will lose the Federal aid it has been enjoying.

All Oppose Johnston.

Coast people are indignant at their supervisor's action and none of the members of the Board of Supervisors are in sympathy with Supervisor Johnston's fight on the WPA. The two occasions on which Supervisor Johnston has become embroiled in controversies with the Federal authorities are the only times Mendocino county roadwork has been jeopardized by incidents of this character and the members of the Board are greatly embarrassed. This is not the time to deprive men of work, they contend, and, if the county should happen to lose its relief work because of Supervisor Johston's animosity toward the WPA the full blame will rest on the coast supervisor.

HE CAN'T PUT IT OVER

EMIL HURJA, ACE POLITICAL ANALYST, who "called the turn" 100 per cent right in 1936, predicted, in an interview last week, that Wendell L. Willkie will win from 25 to 28 states in November, and be elected President by a sweeping majority.

"Wendell Willkie, on the basis of the present trend, will win by from 1,500,000 to 3,000,000 votes," said Mr. Hurja. If the current trend continues at its present rate of acceleration, Mr. Willkie has an opportunity of winning by more than 4,000,000 votes."

Mr. Hurja who, in the last two presidential campaigns was statistician for the Democratic National Committee under the regime of James A. Farley, jumped into the headlines in 1936 as America's number one analyst with his uncanny forecast President Roosevelt would carry 46 states and lose only Maine and Vermont.

Mr. Farley took Mr. Hurja's figures four years ago and won a pool on the election result participated in by a large group of New York and Washington newspaper correspondents.

Reached over long-distance telephone at Chicago, Mr. Hurja told International News Service a sharp trend away from Roosevelt has set in in the big cities throughout the country. This trend started three weeks ago, he said, and "is very marked now."

Mr. Hurja pointed out many things can happen between now, basing his prediction of a Willkie victory on the situation as it exists today and also on a poll which his weekly, The Pathfinder, took 10 days ago.

A year ago, Mr. Hurja, who was once a Texas newspaper publisher, and Ben Smith, the famous Wall Street speculator, purchased The Pathfinder, which boasts more than one million subscribers in rural communities.

Mr. Hurja said he feels his 1940 poll is just as accurate as the one in 1936, on which he based has statement the Republicans would carry only two states.

"I say just as confidently now Willkie will be swept into office," he declared. "I estimate he will win 25 to 28 states."

"How about New York state?" he was asked.

"Safely for Willkie," replied Mr. Hurja.

"How about California?"

"Doubtful in my poll at this time."

The fact Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, came out for Willkie in a speech Friday night would not induce Mr. Hurja to change his California estimate at this time. He said he deals only in present trends, not guesses.

"How about Illinois?" he was asked.

"Definitely Republican."

Asked about Pennsylvania, Mr. Hurja replied, "Slightly less than New York."

"Why is New York so emphatic?"

"Because of the more positive upstate vote for Willkie than four years ago," he answered.

Mr. Hurja went on to say the recent Willkie gains in the big cities of the country are of real significance. He pointed out that in 1936 the cities went Democratic in states where the rural vote went Republican. This was true in cities such as New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Detroit and Chicago.

"The city strongholds for the Democrats are fading," said Mr. Hurja.

"How about the southern states—the solid Democratic South?" he was asked.

"There will be a heavy protest vote against Roosevelt in the south,' he predicted.

In Mr. Hurja's opinion, while the south undoubtedly will go to Roosevelt, Willkie will have New England and the eastern seaboard, the Middle West and the farm belt voting substantially in his favor, which would be more than sufficient to elect him. Meanwhile, the Willkie "prairie fire" is catching on, he said, and spreading to other cities.

Mr. Hurja said his poll revealed the two big issues in the minds of the American people are (1) the war trend, and (2) the third term.

"In the Middle West," he added, "the matter of conscription is more important than the third term. In the east, the third term is the big issue."

There are a lot of subsidiary issues, Mr. Hurja asserted, but, "permeating the whole situation, is the desire of the people for a change."

He said his poll revealed that of the people who have not yet "made up their minds" as to how they will vote, 67 to 69 per cent of them are against the third term.

"The situation today," Mr. Hurja summed up, "is subject to fluctuations. "Ten days from now I will make another statement on the election, and it will be definite."

STATE SENATE WITH PRISON BOARD

"IT IS THE OPINION of the State Senate the Governor acted illegally in removing the State Prison Board members.

"The matter is now being tested in the courts.

"For those two reasons and those alone, the State Senate has refused to confirm the governor's replacement selections."

These were the recent statements of Senator Jerrold L. Seawell of Roseville, president pro tem of the Upper House and chairman of the rules committee to which the governor's prison board selections were sent for action.

Senator Seawell's statement followed closely charges by a hireling of the governor the prison board selections were refused confirmation because a lobbyist asked that this be done.

Speaking for the rules committee, which includes as members Senators Robert Kenny of Los Angeles (Olson's floorleader), John Phillips of Banning, Edward Tickle of Carmel and Chas. H. Deuel of Chico, Senator Seawell said:

"We have grown weary of the constant reiterations that a lobbyist controls this or that and that we are puppets dancing on a string at his command. The lobbyist has become the great alibi for the administration. The greatest lobbying menace the legislature had at Sacramento was the pressure tactics of the administration.

"It is notable the charges which the governor's office broadcast to the press and radio, behind the smoke screen of the California News Service (Olson's own organization), were mimeographed on State-purchased paper, written on a State-owned typewriter, sent in State-purchased envelopes on which were State-purchased stamps. In other words, the taxpayers of California paid for the Olson propaganda, as usual.

"This misuse of State funds is typical of an administration which will go so far in the same release as to say: 'This kind of failure of democratic government is a stronger argument for totalitarian government than all the screeching that Hitler will do and all the strutting Mussolini can do from here on.'

"Mr. Olson should be well acquainted with the goosesteps of the dictators; he tried hard enough to be California's Heil-man."

GIVE THEM ALL YOU'VE GOT

THERE IS NOTHING TO A HORSE RACE but the finish.

The knockout blow, usually, wins the prize fight.

A good foot racer saves his sprint for the last lap.

A political battle ends when the ballots are cast, only.

We have had too much of a defeatist whine in the ranks of the Republicans up to now.

You hear a great deal of there being too many people on relief, who will vote for Roosevelt so they can continue on charity, to overcome.

The truth of the matter is the present campaign is much like a football game that is being closely played by both sides. It is nobody's fight up to now.

Roosevelt is a reckless party leader. He may fumble the ball on the goal line, any minute, and, if he does, the Republicans can break through and win.

Everyone should talk Willkie, work for Willkie and vote for Willkie.

If the Republicans lose now to the Roosevelt Communistic leaders it will mean the end of Democracy.

Roosevelt today has the legislative, financial, naval, army and agricultural agencies of the United States under his control.

If he wins next month he will strangle the Supreme Court and we will find Democracy is dead.

Does He Advocate A Press Wantad?

Several weeks ago A. C. Feriero, of San Anselmo, while on a hunting trip in northern Mendocino and southern Trinity counties, lost two hunting dogs. Mr. Feriero drove all the way from his home to insert an advertisement in The Republican Press and, following appearance of the Wantad he was advised the dogs had been found and later were returned to him. It is this class of service that makes a Press Wantad user always become a booster for Press Wantads.

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, while chairman of the State Board of Prisons of California.

THAT ENCLOSURE THE BROTHER OVERLOOKED

Of course, he had been a highway robber but, somehow or other, I could not reconcile myself to peg him as one who would long roam on the other side of the law.

My recollection now is he came from Fresno. He was a great athlete. He liked to box and was a star football player. I remember he was chiefly famous in prison as one who was able to stand straight and jump over a table. He was charged with energy and was a born dare-devil. He had gone to war and when I one day was talking to him he told me he had "had a hell of a good time over there and would have liked to go again." He craved excitement and was foolish, but he was not a hoodlum. He had a kid brother, who lived in San Francisco, and who came to see him frequently and to him the inmate always, he informed me, counseled obedience to the law and good citizenship, holding himself up as an example of one who had learned law violation would get one nowhere.

As I got the story from him he and two other young fellows got crocked one night and, running short of money, strong-armed a stranger and, relieving him of his funds, continued their carousal in the barrooms until they were apprehended by the police. He took a shine to me and confided many things with me. He had an excellent sense of humor and, sometimes, because he was as Irish as I am, and he was telling me his plans for making good in the future, I thought I could detect a little blarney and that what he was trying to put over on me was just a build-up.

One day his kid brother came to me. He said he wanted to talk to me. We began to discuss his brother's case and, if he didn't sell his brother to me for the next 10 minutes, I do not want a cent. Then, nonchalantly, he said: "Oh, yes, I got a letter from him this week. I guess it will do no harm for you to read it, and he brought forth the familiar-looking prison enveloped letter.

It was a gem.

It was full of the finest advice one could give a young man. It painted pictures of the certainty of losing ,if the easier path were taken. The writer commented on the fact, he gathered from what he could "hear inside," the United States would become involved in war and he hoped his brother would enlist at once and not wait to be drafted. The best thing for a kid to do was to "go to church Sunday and not hang around with the gang in the streets at night" was the excellent instruction the inmate gave his brother. At length he went into the sorry plight his had been, because he "went the booze route." It might be, due to the fact I was "con wise," my misgivings about this man being an Honest John came back to me, but I dismissed the suspicion and told the boy before me his brother was right. I finished reading the letter and started to put it back in the envelope and, as I did so, I happened to turn the opened end of the envelope down and out of it fell a narrow slip of paper. On it was written: "Let O'Brien read this letter. I am coming up before the Board. It will help a lot. Tear this up."

My visitor had overlooked removing the enclosure. The letter was a plant.

My first hunch was right—It was the old Malarkey.

Mr. Smalley Dropped Dead.

Jefferson Smalley, of Geyserville and formerly of Cloverdale, dropped dead in the home of his son, Dan Smalley, just south of Boonville, at six a. m., Sunday, October 13. Death was not unexpected, as his family had known Mr. Smalley 's heart was bad a long time. Services were held Wednesday at Healdsburg at two p. m. Mrs. Smalley is a member of the pioneer Ingram family of Anderson Valley and the sympathy of this community is extended to her and the family in their bereavement.

Mrs. S. S. Richards, of San Francisco, was up for the week-end, to visit her son, Tommy, who is staying at the Frank Ward home this winter. Mrs. Richards operated Clearwater health camp here for children during the past summer and was so favorably impressed with our valley she arranged to leave her son here this winter. He attends Indian Creek school.

Greeted Newcomers.

A reception was held at Boonville church Friday evening to welcome Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Jinnett, our new pastor and his wife, and Miss Elinor Heath and Miss Bailey, of the high school faculty, who are all newcomers to our valley. An interesting program had been prepared by teachers from the valley schools and group singing was enjoyed. Mrs. D. V. Presley and Mrs. H. J. Cox each contributed a solo which was much enjoyed. Refreshments were served and a social hour of visiting helped to complete a pleasant evening. Mrs. F. M. Patterson acted as chairman of the evening.

Anderson Valley Unity Club met Saturday at the high school with Mrs. A. B. Willis, club president, in the chair. Following the business session, interesting reports of the recent county convention were given by delegates. Topic for the day was "Safety In The Home," which was ably handled by Mrs. B. J. Adams and Mrs. J. A. Brown. This was in connection with the Red Cross program for accident prevention which is given in October of each year. Few realize last year 32,000 lost their lives in home accidents and 4,700,000 were injured, 140,000 of whom were permanently disabled. The First Aid course to be given soon by Mrs. F. M. Patterson, local Red Cross instructor, is also sponsored by the Unity Club. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. R. E. Brown, Mrs. A. Gowan, Mrs. Era Blair and Mrs. George Gowan.

Mrs. D. H. Van Zandt, who is a member of the county grand jury was called to Ukiah Monday when the jury went into session.

Mrs. M. W. Tindall has been off duty this week, due to a heavy cold. She hopes to be back to work within a few days. In the meantime Mr. Tindall has been carrying on alone at the Meat Market.

INSTITUTE IS WELL ATTENDED

Fine Programs And Social Life Help Make Success

Today marks the closing sessions of the Humboldt-Mendocino Teachers Institute, which has assembled in Ukiah several hundred elementary and secondary teachers.

Speakers High Grade.

An unusually brilliant group of speakers have added greatly to the conference, which opened Monday morning with addresses by Geoffrey Morgan, Helen Heffernan, chief of the division of elementary education in the state, and Dr. J. Paul Leonard, speaking on "The Secondary School Curriculum." This morning's session features a splendid address by Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, of Los Angeles, whose chosen theme is "Education and the Present Crisis." Leaders of secondary sections at the three-day conclave included Dr. J. Paul Leonard of Stanford University, administration; Dean Grayson Kefauver, dean of Stanford School of Education, guidance; Dr. Alvin C. Eurich, evaluation; Dr. Holland Roberts, English; Dr. William Brown, director of secondary curiculum, Los Angeles, social studies and curriculum. In the elementary sections leaders included Corinne Seeds and Natalie White from the School of Education, U. C. L. A.; Helen Heffernan, Evelyn Kidwell, Ruth Edmands, Myrta Freeman, G. C. Loofbourow, Grace Minch and Elda Coale. Much constructive work has been accomplished during the Institute, which has been interspersed, as well, with pleasant entertainment for local and visiting teachers.

The Social Side.

Monday evening the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce sponsored a dance in the auditorium of Ukiah grammar school, with excellent music by Cliff Iverson. Kingsley Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, welcomed a number of the visitors at a special meeting Monday evening and on Tuesday, teachers as well as town people, enjoyed the splendid symphony orchestra playing at the Ukiah high school auditorium. This afternoon, there is to be a general assembly for finishing all business with regard to announcements, installation of officers and other matters of importance.

B. P. W. C. FANCY DRESS FROLIC PROVED GRAND SUCCESS

No more delightful evening could have been planned than that at which local Business and Professional Women enjoyed a "dress-up" frolic Thursday. The seven o'clock banquet in The Palace Hotel's Canton room, which was beautifully decorated in autumn tints ,fruits and flowers of the Fall season, opened with singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Members and guests next gave the Pledge to the Flag, and then heard Miss Violet Elliot read the collect. Sitting down to the huge U-shaped table, was an odd assortment of black-face comedians, comic strip characters and charming heroines of history and fiction. Maggie and Jiggs, absolutely perfect in make-up and action, were represented and struck a convincing note when "Jiggs" almost succeeded in sneaking into the bar, but was brought hastily to time by the well-directed rolling pin wielded by "Maggie." The five little Dionnes were adorable, and brought forth a long and loud applause, when with dolls and Teddy-bears in arms and eyes cast shyly downward under their bonnets, they recited and sang for the gathering. Wendell Willkie, in business suit and dark hat, had a few words to say for himself—notably "I am not the indispensable man." It was clues of that sort which were given to aid members when pencils and papers were distributed for the guessing contest, which was won by Mildred Sierck, who was awarded a beautiful bowl, filled with colorful blossoms. Huckleberry Finn made the life of the Dionnes miserable with the real and unappetizing fish which dangled from the fishing pole over "his" shoulder. Booker T. Washington, with Bible in hand and pious manner, was well interpreted, and it was the entire evening before anyone knew who was behind that clever disguise. Scarlet O'Hara was charming, and Portia was a page right out of Shakespeare. There was Alice in Wonderland, with long golden locks and the well-known little bottle labeled "Drink Me." Amos and Andy were discussing big business deals, directly across the room from a courtier out of the middle of the nineteenth century when Franz Joseph held court in Austria. Kitty Foyle demanded recognition for the "pioneers of the covered typewriters," and Osa Johnson spoke for pioneers in the jungle. Anne of Green Gables, lovable heroine of childhood stories, was at the banquet table and near her, the inseparable Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. Another counterpart of "Huckleberry" sat farther down the line, near "The Woman I Love" — simply and smartly gowned "Wally Simpson." On Madame Chiang Kai-Shek's right sat The Expressman of "Pigs Is Pigs." It was lots of fun, for those who dressed as well as those who guessed. An entertaining talk by Ralph Long, librarian, and speaker of the evening, was much enjoyed, as Mr. Long reviewed four new novels, in a very entertaining manner. Committee members Laura Kaiser, Audrey Hollenbeck, Violet Elliott, Bess Eversole, Ruby Gobalet, Loretta Ornbaun and Fern Busch deserve much credit for an evening which could not have been improved on in any way, since it combined all the essentials of a thoroughly enjoyable time.

M. E. "RUSH WEEK"

"Rush Week," patterned after college sorority activities, is this week being held by the Methodist Youth, for the purpose of interesting prospective members. Schedule for the week's program was outlined at the League meeting held in the church, and now under way are a series of events, which include hikes, games, a slumber party, a hay ride, a spaghetti feed and a formal tea. The final affair of the week will be an installation and reception service. All interested are invited to join in the activities, and those who were not present at League meeting to hear the program announced, may secure information from Frances Green, president of Methodist Youth.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hurlock motored to San Francisco last week-end for a visit with their daughter, Miss Connie Hurlock, who is in training at St. Luke's Hospital. Mrs. Agnes Hurlock came up from San Jose to join her son and family in the city for a delightful dinner in observance of Miss Hurlock's birthday.

DIGNITY AND BEAUTY DISPLAYED AT CHURCH NUPTIAL

A hush fell in the dimly lighted interior of St. Mary's Catholic church Saturday morning when, at 10 o'clock, sacred strains of "Ave Maria," beautifully sung by Miss Gemma Purcell, floated softly over the congregation. The doors opened and all eyes turned toward the radiant bride, Ida Locatelli, whose brunette loveliness was perfectly complemented by her gown of white brocaded taffeta, cut on princess lines, and the misty tulle veil, which capped her hair and fell at a graceful finger-tip length. In her hands she carried a small white prayerbook with satin streamers, in which were knotted tiny white blossoms. Preceding the bride in the processional to the altar were her maid-of-honor, Mrs. John McWhorter (Hazel Turri) and Miss Margaret Bordessa, bridesmaid. The former was lovely in a gown of pale pink taffeta with matching veil, fastened to her hair by a cluster of flowers of palest blue She, too, carried a prayer book of blue, with streamers of the same color, in which were tied pink blossoms. Behind Mrs. McWhorter walked Miss Margaret Bordessa, attractively gowned in dainty blue taffeta, her veil held in her dark hair by tiny pink flowers. The prayer book in her hands was of light pink, as were the satin streamers falling from it and knotting blossoms of blue. The party approached the altar rail, where large baskets, filled with chrysanthemums of white, against a background of dainty fern, flanked either side. The white blossoms were repeated in altar decorations, to which was added the lovely glow of candles, burning in gold candelabra of graduated heights. The groom, William J. Bold, his best man, William Weishaar, of Oakland, and another friend, Robert Williams, also of Oakland, joined the bride and her attendants before the altar, and solemn nuptial mass followed. A nice note of sentiment was added by the fact the groom's brother, Father Angelus of Spokane, Washington, conducted the mass, assisted by Father Adrian Sharkey. Following the recessional, the bridal party grouped on the steps of the church, where Mr. and Mrs. Bold graciously greeted many relatives and friends who gathered about them. Later, a large number were received at the elaborate and lovely reception given by Mr. and Mrs. John Isnard, in their home, attractively decorated for the happy occasion. A bride's cake and a wonderful wedding cake were among refreshment features. Numerous handsome wedding gifts were received by the popular bride and groom, among them a chest of rich silverware, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Isnard. Included in the list of out-of-town guests, of whom there were many, were J. L. Bold, of Oakland, father of the groom, and Philip and Henry Bold, the groom's brothers, who also came here from the east bay for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Bold departed late in the afternoon, amid a shower of good wishes, to be gone two weeks on a northern honeymoon trip, which will take them into Washington. When they return the first of November, they will reside on South Spring street, where an attractive apartment is in readiness.

TO DEVELOP PROJECT

Mrs. Minnie Brown will preside at an unusually interesting session tomorrow when the Kosmos Club convenes at Municipal Club house. Members have been undertaking, as one of the year's projects, a study of South America, under the heading, "A South American Good Will Tour," and a thorough discussion of the subject will be gone into at tomorrow's meeting. A great deal of literature relating to the topic has been received and will continue to be received by the Club, as material for study. Members and friends interested in the theme, which is particularly important in view of world conditions today, are urged to be present tomorrow at the clubhouse.

WEEKEND GUEST

As houseguest the past weekend, Mrs. Maryjane Dart had Mrs. Erwin Kent Dart, a niece of her late hasband. The visitor had been in Sacramento attending a Grand Chapter meeting of Order of Eastern Star, in which she is associate matron of the Santa Maria Chapter. Mrs. Dart routed her return to her southern California home, via Ukiah, that she might visit her relative.

B. P. W. C. CONFERENCE HELD AT NAPA OVER WEEKEND

Saturday and Sunday, Business and Professional Women from all parts of the Redwood Empire converged on Napa for their fall conference. Program for opening day included the welcome to delegates by Napa's mayor, to whose greeting District President Laura Lorraine responded. Julia Beede, district past president, read the collect after the flag salute. Music, which included group singing, led by district music chairman, Frances Perkins, and special music by Mrs. George Strong, with Mrs. Elvetia Albers at the piano, was interspersed throughout the program. The dinner Saturday evening featured Meltzie Wilmer, state recording secretary, in an address which she was well qualified to give, in view of the fact her subject was "A Naturalized Citizen Speaks of America." She was born in South Africa, educated in England, Scotland and Canada, finally in 1929 becoming a naturalized citizen of the United States. A reception Saturday evening closed the first day's busy session, and prefaced the yet busier one to follow on Sunday. Eight o'clock breakfast for executive board members started the morning. "Work Shops" from 9:45 to 10:30 a. m. engaged the delegates, who next turned their attention to a panel discussion, "Facing the Issues," conducted from 10:30 to 11:15 a. m. in Masonic Hall, with co-ordination chairmen of the district in charge. Laura Lorraine presided at the business session, held from 11:30 to 12:30. Back to the Plaza Hotel for one o'clock luncheon went the delegates, and for the program at which Lavina Smith, district first vice-president, presided. Group singing, led by Frances Perkins, a reading, "Modesty," by Miss Marietta Voorhies, a solo by Charlotte Smith, were presented along with addresses, of which that of State President Florence Stahl was outstanding and inspirational. In the delegation from Ukiah, all of whom voted the sessions, both from educational and social angles, most enlightening and entertaining were Bess Eversole, Esther Redwine, Drusia Harris, Laura Kaiser, Audrey Hollenbeck, Katherine Foster, Opal Foster, Grace Holzhauser, Olive Busch and Joan Fraser.

TELEPHONE LADIES

Mrs. A. H. Hurlock was a gracious hostess Thursday, when members of the Telephone Ladies Club were received in the Hurlock home. Bingo had been chosen as the diversion and prize awards were made to Mrs. H. Hansen and Mrs. Reginald Grant, a special guest, who also received a beautiful gift from club members. It was voted at Thursday's meeting to send flowers to Edward Barker, who is recuperating from an illness in Howard Memorial Hospital at Willits. Mrs. Hurlock provided a dainty refreshment service for her guests—Mesdames R. Grant, E. H. Barker, E. L. Montgomery, B. Shields, H. Thompson, H. Hanson, A. Towne and A. McKinley.

CIRCLE E MET

Mrs. Will Van Dyke and Mrs. W. J. Mellis acted as co-hostesses with Mrs. Ben Edwards, at the latter's home last week, when members of Circle E met in regular session. Mrs. Mellis, as program chairman, introduced Dr. R. A. Van der Las, guest of the Circle that evening, and he gave an appropriate talk before the gathering. Mrs. Ina Branson and Rev. Herbert Brooke were other guests at the gathering and Mrs. Branson delighted the group with two solos. Mrs. Katherine Harvey accompanied on the piano. Refreshments closed the evening and the next date of meeting was set for November 19, at which time Circle E will enjoy a pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Herbert Brooke.

CATHOLIC LADIES PLAN

The Catholic Ladies League met at the Albertinum Thursday with Miss Katherine Gobbi presiding. Hostesses of the day were Mrs. C. M. Russell and Mrs. Ella McCarty and the two ladies served dainty refreshments following the business meeting at which various topics were discussed and arrangements made for the St. Mary's Benefit Moving Picture, sponsored by the League. The date for the movie has been set for November 8, and "Tom Brown's School Days," a picture to delight young and old, will be shown at that time.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON A CHARMING RECENT EVENT

A bridge-luncheon was the delightful manner chosen by Mrs. L. M. Hildreth and Mrs. H. L. Preston to entertain a number of friends last week at Vichy Springs. Color and gaiety marked decorations which combined a Halloween motif with autumn leaves and flowers to grace the table at which the ladies gathered for luncheon and to pleasantly chat. Card tables had been set up and bridge occupied the remainder of the afternoon, at close of which prizes were awarded Mrs. E. H. Schambers, who held high score, Mrs. George A. Sturtevant, second, Mrs. Stella Ray, third, and Mrs. C. H. Doolittle, consolation. The affair, which might be described as one to open the fall social season, assembled a large group of local ladies as well as four San Francisco visitors, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Mrs. Libby Sponagle, Mrs. Maude Sanchez and Mrs. Orval Tadlock, all of whom were warmly welcomed by Ukiah friends at the gathering.

MET MONDAY

Odd Fellows Hall, attractively decorated for the occasion, was the setting for active sessions of Native Daughters and Native Sons of the Golden West Monday evening. Mrs. Mary Vogt of Sebastopol, deputy grand president, accompanied here by delegates from her city, addressed Native Daughters, following the regular business meeting. Initiation of new members occupied Native Sons and later the two organizations and guests of the evening enjoyed a delicious supper.

Judge and Mrs. G. R. Redwine, of Covelo, were in town over the weekend, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Redwine.

Harry J. Mathews, of Redwood Valley, member of the draft board, was in town Monday. Mr. Mathews, eminently fair, will make a fine official and will do his full duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Darby, proprietors of the store at Longvale, were Monday countyseat visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Dunagan were in town Monday to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Neva Kunzler and called on friends during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford returned to San Francisco Wednesday after being here to register.

Mrs. L. E. Basford arrived Wednesday on the bus from Oakland for a fortnight's visit at the home of her sisters, Mrs. G. W. Stout and Mrs. Ida H. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gielow and children, accompanied by Ardis Vassar, motored to Fort Bragg Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. James A. Vassar and family.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER

Mrs. Charles Rucker (Marjorie Mitchell), a bride of yesterday, was honored last week at a prenuptial shower given by Mrs. Harold Hull. The attractive living room in which the hostess received her guests was lovely with decorations of mixed flowers in pastel hues. Conversation and games passed the hours pleasantly. Awards for Chinese checkers went to Mrs. Rucker and Mrs. Myrtle Moore, each of whom received a box of daintily-scented soap. Refreshments of open-face sandwiches, petits-fours and coffee were served, following the gift opening, when the honor guest was recipient of various beautiful articles. The affair assembled the honor guest, her mother, Mrs. Marian Dane, her grandmother, Mrs. M. Elliott, Mrs. Bert Rucker, Mrs. Paul Hansen, Mrs. Athol Horr, Mrs. L. Wildberger, Mrs. Myrtle Moore, Mrs. Lucille Brown, Mrs. R. B. Karns, Mrs. L. D. Dennen, Miss Marguerite LaBastie, Miss Sydney Sanford and the hostess.

RECENT SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB EVENTS

The Saturday Afternoon Club was a picture of autumnal beauty for the meeting held at the clubhouse Saturday. Zinnias, in rich tones and brilliant fall leaves had been used to advantage, while coverings for the tables added more gaiety, each displaying a different hue. Hostesses of the day were Mrs. Guy Redwine, Mrs. Ida Brown, Mrs. G. W. Stout, Mrs. R. D. Foote and Miss Jessie Dewell, who introduced Mrs. Wadsworth, presenting "The Portrait of Jenny," by Robert Nathan, to a very appreciative audience. Two new members, Mrs. Walter Rapaport and Mrs. S. Groshong, were voted into the club at the unusually well attended meeting Saturday.

STUDY GROUP

An interesting study group of the Presbyterian Missionary Society met last week with Mrs. Van der Las as hostess. The ladies passed the afternoon in reading and discussing a volume on China, which they have been studying together. Miss Jessie Dewell spoke on the migrant situation in California, a subject which has also been under survey by the group. Plans for a Christmas box to be filled and shipped to San Francisco for forwarding to one of the many hospitals where gifts bring joy into saddened lives were discussed. A box filled with practical and necessary items is now ready to be sent to an Arizona hospital, where all such donations are needed and welcomed. Mrs. Van der Las provided the dozen members present with a delicious tea service at the conclusion of the study hour.

GRANGE SOCIAL TIME

Halloween decorations added color and gaiety to Grange Hall Friday night when 70 members gathered for a brief business meeting and social time. Eleven new members were inducted and plans were discussed for the hall dedication to take place November 1, when Granges throughout the county will be invited to join in a celebration here. Also under discussion was a card party to be given in the near future. When the business session closed Grange members enjoyed several hours dancing to music by Rex Parker's orchestra and rounded out the evening with refreshments of ice cream and cake. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McGuffin and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Swim were not in attendance as they passed the week in Santa Cruz at the Grange convention and it is expected they will have reports of interest to make at a later meeting.

YOUNG FOLKS' PROGRAM

The last regular business meeting of Rebekahs was followed by a delightful program, of musical numbers and dancing by several talented young people. Patricia Eversole, accompanied at the piano by Blythe Hicks, sang two numbers, as did Betty Lou Boulware. Karina Carlson danced for the gathering while Gloria Pacini accompanied with appropriate piano selections. Billy Williams sang and then Alma Giannoni offered two vocal numbers, which were followed with piano solos by Gloria Pacini. Betty Jean Pacini sang and the program was closed with two numbers, charmingly played by Mrs. Blythe Hicks. The committee of the evening composed of Miss Geraldine Yount, Mrs. Jewell Stipp and Mrs. Grace Williams had arranged lovely bowls of Michaelmas daisies and zinnias, in the gay colors of fall, about the hall and on banquet tables where late supper was served. During the evening the official visit of Mrs. Alice Gowan, district deputy, who will be here October 28, was discussed, and a committee was named to make arrangements for that evening. Mrs. Prudence Thompson, Mrs. Lydia Williams and Mrs. Edith McCain are those who will take charge.

TO WELCOME VISITORS

Mrs. J. H. Hansen headed the committee which planned attractive decorations in Halloween motif, and arranged a charming program for Monday evening when Kingsley Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, met in regular session. Initiation was included in the business of the evening, and interesting reports on the Grand Chapter convention at Sacramento last week were presented by Miss Grace Toles, Mrs. Bess Eversole and William Mellis, who went from here to attend the conclave. The social hours following close of the business session, were made enjoyable by two lovely solos offered by Mrs. Margaret Byrnes and two humorous readings delightfully given by Mrs. Alfred Fraga. Following the program, members of the Cultus Club repaired to the Maple Cafe for refresments and to hold their regular business meeting.

This lady has just finished her week's wash. But here's what she didn't do: She didn't stand over a steamy, old-fashioned washing machine. She didn't slave over set tubs for soaking or rinsing. She didn't lift heavy, soggy clothes. She didn't mop up a washday mess. She didn't put her hands in hot, soapy water. She didn't have to! All this lady did was flip a switch on a Bendix Home Laundry to wash, rinse and damp-dry the clothes. No wonder she's as fresh as a daisy!

A HOUSEWARMING

Friends of Milton and Helen Hughes, who have been rejoicing at the couple's return to Mendocino county, will have an opportunity to really welcome them Saturday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have their official opening of Pioneer Inn, the place they recently took over in Potter Valley. There is to be an evening of grand fun, good food and dancing, and all who know the Hughes are familiar with their ability to be perfect hosts and entertainers. Those who do not, should quickly become acquainted and will be glad they found a place like Pioneer Inn to add to their list of ideal spots for real enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have been living in Petaluma several years and have steadily planned on a return some day to this county where they have so many friends and where during their residence they had an active part in numerous affairs. They are both happy to be back and are anxious to extend a welcome to all who visit their Pioneer Inn.

A Successful Party.

Willits claims the honor of having some of the mightiest hunters in Mendocino county one of the last parties of which returned last week from an outing at the Island Mountain Hunting Club. The group consisted of Supervisor Duane Bittenbender, Jim Gibbons, Merrill Williams, Henry Haehl, Jack Purdy, Al Redd, Dick Baechtel and W. F. Whitney, and several from Laytonville. According to reports all but one of the nimrods got a fine buck.

Scouts Are Growing.

The Laytonville Boy Scouts Club is rapidly becoming one of the best in the county. In order to raise funds they will give a dance November 16 at the Laytonville school. One reason this club is so successful is because there are fewer other attractions there than in larger towns.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitney are taking an outing in the northern counties and will combine hunting and sightseeing.

Conductor Claude Edwards, who is receiving treatment at the Southern Pacific Hospital, San Francisco, is reported much better and expects to return home shortly.

County Clerk H. M. Burke was here last week on official business.

At Howard Hospital.

Gordon Baechtel underwent a major operation. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wolff. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Hurt of Covelo. Edward Barker of Ukiah is receiving medical care. Mrs. Alice Whisenant, also of Ukiah, has been released following medical care.

Talked To Veterans.

There was a large attendance at the county meeting of Legionnaires and the Auxiliary at which Archie Clossen, of Lodi, Past Department Commander, made the principal address and had for his subject, "Legion Activities." The regulation dinner and dancing were the other attractions.

First White Child Born Here Buried

Funeral services were held last week for William H. Snell, 80, native of California's lumber country and son of a pioneer family. Believed to be the first white boy born in Ukiah, Mr. Snell's parents settled in Mendocino county in 1849, after crossing the country by covered wagon. For 34 years a Berkeley resident, Mr. Snell was retired as chief lumber appraiser for the Southern Pacific Company. He is survived by his widow, Jennie; two sons, Earl Snell of Hollywood and M. J. Snell of San Rafael, two daughters, Mildred Snell of Oakland and Mrs. Neta Bailey of Berkeley. Interment was in Ukiah.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. McNab returned this week from a motor trip to the Puget Sound country.

DEFEAT
Proposition No. 3

It would turn over to the Olson Administration full control of California's penal institutions.

The proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 3 was inspired by the John Gee Clark-"Red Kate" O'Hare conspiracy.

It is a peril to the public.

It would also empower each new Governor, through his influence with the Legislature to make such changes as would result in an unstable prison administration and make it possible to turn loose upon the public many unsafe, violent and vicious criminals.

This is evidenced by the fact that, since the present Governor began to meddle in prison management, strikes, scandals and breaking down of morale have followed each other in the prisons.

Unless the amendment is defeated, it will remove the old-time non-political management.

KEEP POLITICS OUT OF CALIFORNIA'S PRISONS

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Ukiah "on its toes" With Redwood Empire Association

The 20th annual convention of the Redwood Empire Association will be held in Ukiah this week-end—October 25 and 26.

During this convention plans will be formulated for activities in the coming year, with emphasis on the tourist traffic. It has been stressed that, in the face of growing competition, the Redwood Empire, popular as it is, cannot afford not to be constantly "on its toes."

The Redwood Empire Association has done much to foster the growth of our business and farming interests, and will receive the co-operation of everyone in the Ukiah district.

Nearly a hundred packaged gifts; a lovely assortment of useful and pretty things was given the happy bride . The entertainment program consisted of everyone singing "God Bless America," two accordion solos by Mrs. George Wood, and Mrs. Frank Haydon presented a clever special ditty arranged for the bride and groom. Guests were invited to enjoy the luncheon menu of hot dogs bedded in buttered homemade hot rolls, salad, cake and coffee. The affair was of such an enjoyable nature, many returned with their escorts for an old-time charavari in the evening.
